5. Administrative Reports:

President (Feinstein): We are continuing to advocate for faculty to be elevated in the State's vaccine prioritization list.

DISCUSSION:

- x Leek asked about plans for vaccinations for students and faculty in classroom settings.
  - o We are confident that everyone who wants a vaccine will have the opportunity to be vaccinated before the Fall term. However, due to the vaccines being procured through emergency use authorization, UNC is not permitted to make the vaccine mandatory at this point. Other mitigation strategies may be in place in some manner for Fall.
- x McMullen brought up the issue of faculty serving as student teaching supervisors who spend significant time in K12 schools.
  - o The administration will be reaching out to District 6 as a starting point to see what can be done to support faculty working in K12 schools.

Provost (Anderson): The new EBS Dean, Jared Stallones, will begin the role prior to the start of the 21/22 academic year. PVA Dean candidates' virtual forums recently concluded, we are seeking feedback from the campus community. Today is a Full App day. Admissions has been reaching out to students who applied or deferred in previous terms. In response to questions about UNC's goals for becoming a (H1U)3 of 4 UWT 22 (5)3 Fdi(a)6 (t(d)2 (g)-1

- Luger presented grievance policy revisions on behalf of the Welfare committee.
  - Many of the updates are changes to make the policy easier/clearer to understand.
  - Two substantive changes:
    - x The parameters of confidentiality have been adjusted in the first paragraph for better guidance.
    - x The audio recording of the hearing shall be retained for seven years (which matches the retention of RSCW Misconduct records) and it is explicitly set forth that all parties to the grievance may listen to the recording.
  - The policy has been vetted by the Faculty Welfare committee and Codification committee.

MOTION: Welfare – It is moved to approve the revised faculty grievance policy as presented.

VOTE: Approved by voice vote.
