Unfinished Business
   • Permanent S/U Grading Policy – no updates

   • Grade Point Average
        o The committee reviewed revised language incorporating feedback from the last meeting UG and GR each have their own section as some policy references are applicable only to the UG level.
        o The committee revised the following sections applicable to both the UG and GR level
        • ==The credit hours and quality points are totaled for all UNC courses within the same==

            ==degree level, Undergraduate (UG) or Graduate (GR).==

        • ==Students determine placement of 500-level courses toward UG or GR credit hour and==

            ==quality point totals (See Course Designation Policy).== MOTION: Lightfoot – It is moved to approve the catalog language as amended and send it to Codification

- Posthumous Degrees
  - o Heiny presented language to clarify the existing posthumous degree policy

  - o Background: The current posthumous degree policy indicate the Registrar will withdraw the student from all registered cou work. A student passed away this semester and had already completed one credit course. As the course is completed and has a posted grade, they dont want to withdraw the student
  - o The committee offered the following clarifying edit:
